HELP FIGHT AGAINST WASHINGTON AND THEIR RECKLESS PROPOSALS.

Dear Andy,

Late Wednesday night, Republicans allowed passage of an amendment from Rep. Sean Maloney (D-NY) to an appropriations bill. The amendment would legitimize President Barack Obama's radical agenda to punish those who don't follow his pro-LGBT agenda.

This amendment requires the federal government to follow Obama's executive order 13672. This executive order instructs the federal government to deny contracts to companies that don't follow the Obama mandated sexual identity agenda. This could include companies that don't allow men into female restrooms and showers in their private corporate offices.

It is a shame that a Republican led Congress is forcing Obama's radical agenda down the American people's throat. The Obama administration wants you to believe that a man who "thinks" he is female should have access to the same facilities as real women. It is dangerous to force federal contractors to allow individuals free access to the private facilities of the opposite sex. Republicans in Congress along with President Obama are willing to put the safety of women and children at risk all for their radical agenda.

It's not too late to stop this dangerous Maloney baloney. The House has yet to approve final passage of this bill. Please contact your representative in an effort to stop this radical agenda!

Take Action

Email your representative and urge him to vote "NO" on any appropriations bill that includes a Maloney amendment or any amendment which goes along with Obama's pro-gay and transgender bathroom agenda.
